PARIS - Franco-American musical theatre company AMT Live continues Paris' longest running musical theatre open mic soirée next month on the theme of Winter Wonderland, featuring special guest appearance by members of the cast of La Revanche de Capitaine Crochet, written by Ely Grimaldi, Igor de Chaillé, and Raphael Sanchez.

As always, the stage will be opened up to local talents who have prepared pieces by any of the award winners of this annual prize, which honors promising musical theatre composers. The evening's AMT Live member hosts, Lauren Berkman (USA) and Vincent Gilliéron (Switzerland), will continue the tradition of awarding prizes to quiz winners on the evening's theme.

Musical theatre lovers are invited to this quintessentially Parisian experience which combines exclusivity of a riverboat along the Seine with the welcoming atmosphere of your local neighborhood pub. You'll be treated to a mix of the finest talent in town, courageous first-timers, and everything in between, all in a fun-loving atmosphere.

Le Marcounet is a full-service bar and serves fromage and charcuterie to tide you over while you enjoy the evening.
