PARIS - Franco-American musical theatre company AMT Live is proud to present the French premiere of It's Only Life by John Bucchino. The Broadway composer and lyricist will join the company to perform a concert version of his musical for one performance only on January 15, 2016 in Paris, France (7:00pm).

This will be a special partnership with the Conservatoire Municipal du 9^eme Nadia et Lili Boulanger and the city of Paris, and will feature fifteen artists, including Stéphanie Morales, Quentin Bruno, Lauren Berkman, David Koenig, Amélie Foubert, Andrea Offner, and Brian Papadimitriou, with direction by Miranda Crispin, Mathieu Serradell and the composer himself.

This story, told entirely in song, tells the cycle of life and relationships through the touching journeys of longing, loss, and fear to find love, wisdom, and strength. The show won LA's 2008 Ovation Award for Best Book/Lyrics/Music for an Original Musical.

Featuring an international troupe of artists, this ground-breaking Franco-American association has set the pace for contemporary musical theatre in Paris, France. AMT Live launched Paris' first professional, Off-Broadway style seasons with critically acclaimed French premiere productions of Edges, The Last Five Years, Songs for a New World, and Next Thing You Know. The company hosts Studio AMT Live, an integrated training division that offers workshops led by professionals from Paris, Broadway, West End and beyond.

Community outreach efforts include Paris' first bilingual musical theatre Open Mic Soirées, fundraising performances for the Make-A-Wish Foundation and Action Froid. Our artists have also performed for special private events, including performances at the American Embassy, Rotary International and La Defense for Paris l'ete Defacto with Paris New York TV. More info at www.amtlive.org

Originally directed by Daisy Prince and conceived by Daisy Prince & John Bucchino, this production received its world premiere with the Rubicon Theatre Company in June of 2008 and it's Off-Broadway premiere at SPF-04. It's Only Life is presented through special arrangement with R&H Theatricals Europe: www.rnh.com

It's Only Life is presented in partnership with the city of Paris and as part of an agreement with the musical theatre program at the Conservatoire du 9è arrondissement Nadia et Lili Boulanger.
