

Master Class in Musical Theatre Voice (Extreme Singing)

Guest Artist: Gwendolyn Walker

March 16, 17 & 18, 2016

14-18h (12 hours total)

Singers will apply techniques used in contemporary commercial music and the Alexander Technique to improve performance in their musical theatre repertoire in any genre from rock and pop to singer-songwriter and country. We will cover an introduction of the variety of styles applied in the current musical theatre industry, components of mix/belt technique, exercises for developing the mix voice, finding your individual vocal style, and how dramatic intention supports your overall performance.

An atmosphere of laughter and trust will welcome singers to explore, risk, and discover together in a challenging fast-paced environment.

Singers must prepare 2 selections from memory to work in this master class from the musical theatre belt, rock/pop, singer-songwriter, or country genres.

The class will be held in English, but assistance with translation will be provided as needed.

There are a limited number of performer slots for the three-day master class. A limited number of auditors are also welcome.

REGISTRATION

If you wish to participate in the master classes as a singer/actor participant, please fill out the Master Class Registration Form and send a CV, headshot, and Mp3 to studio@amtlive.org. (Dossier is not required for performers who have applied for AMT Live Master Classes in the past. Simply submit your registration form.) Singers who are taken for the master class will receive a registration link to confirm their participation.

Those wishing to attend as auditors do not need to submit materials and are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis, and can enroll online directly at the following link:
